Notes: This spreadsheet provides information on the current status of bishops listed in "Two-thirds of bishops let accused priests work," by Brooks Egerton and Reese Dunklin, Dallas Morning News June 12, 2002. The article, including a copy of the original print edition, is available at <http://www.bishop-accountability.org/resources/resource-files/databases/DallasMorningNewsBishops.htm>. Dates and information on transitions were obtained from <http://www.catholic-hierarchy.org/>. Last updated 5/6/10.

Color and bolding are used to highlight certain data on the ages of the bishops:

Red indicates bishops who are at or over the standard retirement age of 75.

Blue indicates bishops aged 70 to 74

Green indicates bishops younger than 70

Bold highlights deaths

Red highlights retired status
