All trials can be by JURIES who have a duty to be fully informed about Jury Nullification. Jury Nullification is the way juries of the American people can MAKE ALL DECISIONS ABOUT THE OUTCOME OF TRIALS AND CHARGES, IRRESPECTIVE OF THE LAW, and not politicized judges and courts.

*"all power is inherent in the people; that they may exercise it by themselves, in all cases to which they think themselves competent, (as in electing their functionaries executive and legislative, and deciding by a jury of themselves, both fact and law, in all judiciary cases in which any fact is involved) or they may act by representatives, freely and equally chosen; that it is their right and duty to be at all times armed; that they are entitled to freedom of person; freedom of religion; freedom of property; and freedom of the press." - [Extract from Thomas Jefferson to John Cartwright. Jury Nullification and The Constitution

Jury nullification is a fundamental aspect of the American justice system, rooted in the Constitution and the principles of liberty and democracy. Here's a breakdown of the key points:

Constitutional Guarantees

- Trial by Jury: The Sixth Amendment to the Constitution guarantees the right to a trial by jury in all criminal cases, and the Seventh Amendment guarantees the right to a trial by jury in all civil cases over $20 in value. This includes the power of jurors to judge both the law and the facts.
- Jury Independence: The Seventh Amendment ALSO ensures that jurors are not subject to coercion or intimidation by judges, prosecutors, or other authorities and that the decision of the jury cannot be re-examined.
- Right to a Fair Trial: The Fourteenth Amendment's Due Process Clause protects the right to a fair trial, which includes the ability of jurors to exercise their judgment and discretion in rendering a verdict.

Historical Context

1. Colonial Era: Jury nullification originated in colonial America, where juries were used to protest British rule and enforce moral and political principles.
2. Founding Fathers: The Founding Fathers, including Alexander Hamilton and John Adams, recognized the importance of jury nullification as a check on government power and a means to uphold justice and morality.

Constitutional Language

1. Maryland Constitution: Article 23 of the Maryland Constitution explicitly guarantees the right of jurors to “judge” the law in criminal cases.
2. Georgia Constitution: Article 1, Section 1, Paragraph XI of the Georgia Constitution states that jurors shall be the “judges of the law and the facts” in criminal cases.
3. Other States: Twenty other states have similar provisions in their constitutions, often under sections on freedom of speech or due process.

Implications

1. Decentralization of Power: Jury nullification decentralizes political power, allowing individuals to exercise their judgment and conscience in the face of unjust or oppressive laws.
2. Protection of Individual Rights: By giving jurors the power to nullify laws, the Constitution protects individual rights and liberties from government overreach.
3. Checks and Balances: Jury nullification serves as a check on the judiciary and the executive branches, ensuring that the system remains accountable to the people.

Conclusion

Jury nullification is a cornerstone of the American justice system, grounded in the Constitution and the principles of liberty and democracy. It provides a vital mechanism for individuals to exercise their judgment and conscience, protecting individual rights and liberties from government overreach.
